

Shining Blue

*In the ragged breath of morning
From a quiet place below
Comes the cry that I am choking
On these tears that will not flow
I don't know if you can hear it
I don't know just where you are
But I know you should not fear it
You didn't have to run so far*

*Shining Blue, Shining Blue
I would give anything
To lie again with you*

*When the rain falls on the heather
In that far off foreign field
Will you wish we were together
And the wounds could all be healed
Will you wish we had not heeded
The compulsions of our pride
Will you wish you had not needed
All that I could not provide*

*Shining Blue, Shining Blue
I would give anything
To lie again with you*

*With a love that was not wanted
With a song that's sung no more
I will be forever haunted
I will be forever,
I will be forever yours*

*Shining Blue, Shining Blue
I would give anything
Shining Blue
I would give anything
To lie again with you*
